

92nd International Convention
July 16-19, 2009 • Greensboro, North Carolina

“Share His Story” at the 92nd Convention of the International Lutheran Laymen’s League

Join us for the international convention of the International Lutheran Laymen’s League (Lutheran Hour Ministries) at the Sheraton Hotel/Joseph Koury Convention Center in Greensboro, July 16-19. This year’s theme is “Share His Story” (Psalm 66:16), so it is our hope that attendees will be emboldened to share the story of salvation with those who don’t know God.

Speakers and events include the ever-popular Pastor Ken Klaus, Speaker of The Lutheran Hour[®]; retired NASCAR driver and announcer Ned Jarrett; Phyllis Wallace, host of Woman to Woman[®], interviewing Pattie Petty, founder, CEO, and chairman of the board for an organization providing chronically ill children with a life-changing camping experience; a trip to Adaumont Farm to learn about the LHM Men’s NetWork; and workshops to educate you about LHM’s programs and help you share His story with family, friends, and others. On Family Night, visit the fictional town of Mayberry from The Andy Griffith Show. This event includes games, entertainment, Southern cuisine, and character re-enactments!

This year’s convention is your chance to learn about the great things happening at Lutheran Hour Ministries! Registration is $95 for adults, or $65 for a two-day registration or a full registration for children ages 6 to 18. Lodging, meals, and entertainment options are extra. For more information, or to register, visit www.lhm.org/convention or call 1-800-876-9880.

Celebrate the Savior During a Worship Service Open to the Public

Pastor Ken Klaus, Speaker of The Lutheran Hour (the world’s longest-running Christ-centered radio program), will deliver a message intended to inspire and motivate you during the “LHM Celebrates the Savior” worship event. The service also includes uplifting music from a choir of convention attendees. The event begins at 4 p.m. on Sat., July 18 at the Sheraton Greensboro’s Imperial Ballroom and is open to the general public.

REACH Conference “Goes Green” in Greensboro

Conference for Young Adults Blends Evangelism with the Environment

REACH is a two-day conference (July 17-18) sponsored by Lutheran Hour Ministries that addresses the unique outreach challenges of people in their 20s and 30s. The conference is held in conjunction with the international convention of the International Lutheran Laymen’s League.

REACH 2009 takes an environmental tone, delving into the question of how Christians should view themselves in relation to the world around them. In-depth Bible studies provide a biblical foundation for why we should care about God’s creation and inspire attendees to delight in it. Special workshops will equip people to move from caring for creation to sharing the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of it with others and prepare them to answer objections to the faith that deal with creation and evolution.

Visit www.lhm.org/reach for more information.

Help “Share His Story” with the Convention Servant Event

This year, the children and youth of the convention are collecting Bibles for distribution at the Brenner’s Children’s Hospital on the campus of the Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem. The hospital will distribute Bibles to children ages 2-10. Adults will collect large print Bibles for older patients at the Baptist Hospital and residents of nursing facilities in the Greensboro area. Children and youth will also make prayer cards and memory labels to be placed in each Bible. We encourage you to bring new Bibles to donate or money to purchase Bibles at the convention. Children’s Bibles will be available for $5 and large print Bibles for $11. Our goal is donate 500 children’s Bibles and 500 large-print Bibles.
