2009 International Convention – July 16-19 Greensboro, North Carolina

The 92nd International Convention of the International Lutheran Laymen's League will meet in Greensboro, North Carolina, July 16-19. The convention theme, "Share His Story", is based on Psalm 66:16, which says, "Come and listen, all you who fear God; let me tell you what He has done for me." It is our hope that convention attendees will be emboldened to share the story of salvation with those who don't know God.

Speakers and events include the ever-popular Pastor Ken Klaus, Speaker of The Lutheran Hour®; legendary NASCAR driver Ned Jarrett; the Men's NetWork Lunch at the Kyle Petty Farm; the Petal Pushers Build-A-Float Party; and workshops to empower you to "Share His Story" with your family, friends, and others around you. Reach 2009, a conference within the convention for young adults, takes an environmental tone, equipping young adults to address questions that often arise when discussing creation and evolution.

The LLL Visits Mayberry!

On Family Night, join us for a blast from the past: a visit to simpler times, a re-creation of the town of Mayberry from "The Andy Griffith Show". If you're not careful, Barney may issue you a citation, Floyd may tell you your hair is too long, and Otis ... well, Otis will be Otis. The evening includes carnival games, music by The Cockman Family Gospel Bluegrass Band, good Southern cuisine, and an up-close and personal view of Andy's squad car!

This squad car, similar to the one driven in "The Andy Griffith Show", could take you to the Mayberry Courthouse in Mount Airy, North Carolina, the inspiration for Mayberry and the hometown of actor Andy Griffith.

Visit Mount Airy with fellow convention attendees during a special pre-convention tour on Wednesday, July 15.
