English Language Workshop

Lutheran Hour Ministries in Sri Lanka called “Lanka Hope Media” opened its ministry center in 2001. Lanka Hope Media brings people to Christ by using Bible Correspondence Courses (BCC) in both native languages of Sinhalese and Tamil. The ministry center also reaches out through films that they show in the villages and organizes music rallies in the tea plantation areas to proclaim the Gospel through devotional songs.

A team is needed in help facilitate an English Language Workshop in Nuwara Eliya—teaching basic English with grammar to students from the ages of 12 –21. The team will be helping the students through reading, writing and the spoken language. The team will lead daily devotions while incorporating singing and storytelling. Students are from the nearby tea plantations. This project will assist LHM by opening new opportunities for ministry in the tea plantations areas. The seeds will be planted for continued ministry for LHM using the Bible correspondence courses.

You will learn about Sri Lanka through authentic cross-cultural experiences and having fellowship with local Lutherans, and will have the opportunity to share the love of Jesus.
