In more than 40 countries around the world, Lutheran Hour Ministries (LHM) is equipping, engaging, and proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Get off the beaten path

By participating in an LHM GW&W trip, you will embark on an authentic cross-cultural experience, discovering the diversity of God's children. Volunteers often gain insight into other cultures through daily interactions with people of the community at local congregations and schools.

Though the majority of the trip is devoted to service, several days are often set aside for sightseeing and exploring. On these days, volunteers are given the opportunity to see larger cities, castles, museums, and other popular tourist destinations, as well as to browse in local shops and markets.
