Partnership in Action

Saint Paul Lutheran Church in Jackson, Missouri sends a team of volunteers to Guatemala every two years. They work with our ministry center and a church in the city of Gualán doing construction projects, mission outreach and children’s programs. The experience has resulted in rich and lasting relationships. “We go and we serve and we give in response to the Holy Spirit’s work in us,” one participant told us, “but afterward we always feel as if we received more than we gave. You can’t get that feeling from any other facet of life!”

Global Outreach

Here’s how Lutheran Hour Ministries carries out its mission of Bringing Christ to the Nations—and the Nations to the Church in more than 30 countries worldwide:

- Radio broadcasts of locally produced programs
- Bible Correspondence Courses tailored for personal and private exploration of the Gospel
- Equipping the Saints evangelism workshops to strengthen volunteers’ understanding of witnessing
- Holistic outreach that shares the love of God in words and demonstrates it in action
- Music, drama and puppet ministries that use traditional songs and entertainment to teach about Jesus
- Rallies that attract large crowds in both rural communities and urban centers
- Youth-centered outreach such as Project JOEL that engages young people in Christian activities

If this revolutionary movement in international evangelism excites you, we have a special opportunity for you: you can be a part of it. How? Through Lutheran Hour Ministries’ International Ministries Partnership program.

You can respond to an urgent ministry need right now with a one-time financial gift. Or you might wish to build a long-term direct relationship and sponsor a ministry center by providing sustained prayer and financial support.

Or if you’re called to go—to roll up your sleeves and work alongside your international ministry partners—we can help you get there with an International Volunteer Trip. You’ll get to know them, their families and the people they serve—and you’ll want to go back.

An International Ministries Partnership is as dynamic and flexible as you need it to be. You can choose one of these options—or every one of them—according to what works for you.
