Competencies of the Board (From Appendix E)

The Board requires overall competency in the areas of expertise that follow. Board members are accountable to the membership of the organization and upon election must receive orientation training as they assume their responsibilities. From time to time members with diverse backgrounds, specialized abilities and skills should be elected to the Board. This will result in a Board with the overall strength needed to provide strategic direction and policies to govern the organization and its programs.

The Board must set the Ends policies for the organization. It needs to establish the tactical course to enable the organization to fulfill its mission. The Board must work as a strategic partner with the CEO, so that the organization meets its goals and commitments. Strategic thinking must be an essential part of regular Board work.

The Board is the governing body of the organization and will establish policies to govern the organization effectively. Board members should be competent at developing and monitoring policies.

Innovation
A changing world demands the Board look at the organization and its strategic direction in new and innovative ways. The Board must be capable of generating fresh ideas and remaining open to new ways of organizing the Int’l LLL to carry out its timeless mission of Bringing Christ to the Nations—and the Nations to the Church.
