Bring welcomed hope to your community through Project Connect—an indispensable, on-site, booklet ministry resource that uses display fixtures of pocket-sized, topical booklets to promote outreach. There are also some booklets for equipping your congregation’s members to share their faith. Each of the more than 50 booklet titles available is written from a Christian perspective and addresses a variety of topics, from forgiveness and the after-life to depression and anger management. Select titles are available in Spanish. Explore all three topical categories: faith-based topics for children, issue-based topics for those in need, and faith-based topics to equip Christian adults.

By using a Project Connect display stand or a smaller desktop PC Junior, churches, business owners, and mission-minded individuals can maximize booklet usage by placing them in a high-traffic location. While church narthexes, pastors’ offices, and fellowship halls are ideal and convenient locations, you might consider placing a stand where support groups or other social services are located. Project Connect booklets are designed so you can easily affix a label with church information, service times, etc.

Project Connect gets members involved! As a self-funded ministry (additional donation envelopes can be ordered at no cost), the purchase of new Project Connect booklets is supported by contributions from visitors and church members who appreciate and have benefitted from the content. Congregations or individuals can make a big difference in people’s lives by using a Project Connect display to offer booklets as an outreach tool!

Available as FREE downloadable PDFs and MP3 files, too!

Contentment: the apostle Paul’s illuminating view on contentment satisfied is very much tied to our perspective. Citing fleeting things of this world. Offering insight on be a void if we tie our sense of inner peace to the missing. The truth of the matter is there will always for good measure, it can still feel like something’s missing. No more than a five-star home, a wife and family, and an estate. Deep down inside there’s more to true contentment than a five-star home, a wife and family, and an estate. Our lot in life—and let’s face it, most of us want more.

Pastor Dion Garrett. “It’s a decision to trust in the God’s goodness, no matter what,” writes author and evangelist. At the center of our comeback is our “trust in God’s goodness.”

Intentions simply aren’t enough. Sometimes what is needed is a “re-do,” comebacks are high on the agenda. Here’s the dilemma however. Sometimes our best efforts to turn the page, it’s like trying to turn over an oiled page. Blind side that dropped you to the ground, you can’t go back. Not without leaving a scar. A “re-do,” comebacks are high on the agenda.

- Why were preoccupied with the simple stories of his life.

- Christians have always been a Jesus-consumed people. Why did some people feel drawn to bow before him? Why were so many people silenced and thrilled by his words?

- When you stop and think about it, this is an odd sort of the gifts, talents and abilities He has entrusted or community, God’s plans will make the most of this.

- What’s your purpose in life? Like spokes without a hub, our lives are meaningless. When we put Jesus at the center of our lives, our purpose will fit beautifully together in His purpose—

- Over the years, Christians have adopted the cross as their central symbol. Why did Jesus’ death by a cross is important for Christians?

- But why? Why have Christians adopted the cross as their central symbol? Why did Jesus’ death by a cross become such a focal point for Christians?

- The cross (two simple lines, one vertical, one horizontal) is the most recognized symbol in the world. Why did some people feel drawn to bow before him? Why were so many people silenced and thrilled by his words?
