Bring welcomed hope to your community through Project Connect—an indispensable, on-site, booklet ministry resource that uses display fixtures of pocket-sized, topical booklets to promote outreach. There are also some booklets for equipping your congregation’s members to share their faith. Each of the more than 50 booklet titles available is written from a Christian perspective and addresses a variety of topics, from forgiveness and the after-life to depression and anger management. Select titles are available in Spanish. Explore all three topical categories: faith-based topics for children, issue-based topics for those in need, and faith-based topics to equip Christian adults.

By using a Project Connect display stand or a smaller desktop PC Junior, churches, business owners, and mission-minded individuals can maximize booklet usage by placing them in a high-traffic location. While church narthexes, pastors’ offices, and fellowship halls are ideal and convenient locations, you might consider placing a stand where support groups or other social services are located. Project Connect booklets are designed so you can easily affix a label with church information, service times, etc.

Project Connect gets members involved! As a self-funded ministry (additional donation envelopes can be ordered at no cost), the purchase of new Project Connect booklets is supported by contributions from visitors and church members who appreciate and have benefitted from the content. Congregations or individuals can make a big difference in people’s lives by using a Project Connect display to offer booklets as an outreach tool!

Available as FREE downloadable PDFs, MP3s, and app!

Contentment:

Contentment is very much tied to our perspective. Citing contentment, the author shows how being truly satisfied with our necessities met and a few perks thrown in might be a void if we tie our sense of inner peace to the fleeting things of this world. Offering insight on how to find contentment in this world, the author reminds us that our lot in life—and let's face it, most of us want more—is all numbered. Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows sold for a penny. In all of this, knowing that God is there with you in every moment, leaning on God, staying focused on your care and, ideally, your recovery, can be the difference between life and death. Battling breast cancer is an all-in effort best waged by surgery, radiation, chemotherapy, and other forms of treatment. The key, however, is early detection and a proactive doctor-patient strategy for eradicating the cancer altogether.

Of all the cancers out there, breast cancer is particularly interesting due to the genetic and biological changes in your cancer cells. Most breast cancers are estrogen-dependent, meaning that they rely on estrogen to grow and spread. Estrogen levels increase with age and during menopause, which can make breast cancer more likely to develop and harder to treat. This is why it's important to have regular mammograms and breast exams to detect any changes early on.

The development of the theology embraced by the Protestant Reformation, as typified by Martin Luther's story and the events of the Reformation, is an excellent example of how God's grace can transform and impact the lives of those it touches. The Reformation was a time of great change and struggle, but it also brought about a renewed focus on the need for individuals to have a personal relationship with God. This led to the development of many new denominations and churches, each with its own unique approach to faith and salvation.
